

APPOINTMENTS TO THE SOCIAL SERVICES APPEAL BOARD

The following Manitobans have been appointed or reappointed to the Social Services Appeal Board (SSAB):

Carmanne Berry (Teulon) is a retired volunteer with experience in the financial industry. Her community involvement includes serving as president of the Thompson Kinette Club, as secretary to the Pipestone-Albert Agricultural Society and as a member of the Reston Merchants Association.

Viola Davidson (Winnipeg) is a registered psychiatric nurse. She has worked as a nurse clinician at the Crisis Response Centre and as a primary psychiatric nurse at Victoria General Hospital. Her community involvement includes serving as a board member and volunteer for Clubhouse Inc. Davidson has also taught courses and done numerous presentations on psychiatry. She has served on the SSAB since 2017.

Taranjit Dhaliwal (St. Adolphe) is a sales associate at Quarks. Her volunteer experience includes Mestdagh Chiropractic Clinic, Siloam Mission and Harborview Pharmacy. She has also volunteered with Winnipeg Sikh Youth and the University of Manitoba Student Association. Dhaliwal has served on the SSAB since 2017.

Jason Guy Glesby (Winnipeg) has over 20 years' experience owning and operating a garden centre and landscaping business. He previously worked as a bus driver and Class 1 truck driver. Glesby has served on the SSAB since 2017.

Dolores Hardy (Brandon) is a faculty supervisor for student teachers at Brandon University. She retired from the Brandon School Division in 2012 after teaching for 20 years. Hardy holds a master of education from Brandon University and her volunteer experience includes the Westman Retired Educators Association, the Philanthropic Education Organization and the Brandon Reading Council.

Treena Ross (Fraserwood) is an entrepreneur and the owner of Explosive Promotions. She is also an advocate for disabled and disadvantaged people and the president of Camp KAN-DO Inc., a not-for-profit for special needs children. Ross has served on the Social Services Appeal board since 2017.

Rajinder Grewal (Winnipeg) is president of Trade Mark Properties in Winnipeg. His volunteer experience includes serving as fundraising chair of the Punjab Cultural Centre and as president of the Sikh Society of Manitoba. Grewal is fluent in English, Hindi, Punjabi and Urdu.

Prof. Israel Kabashiki (Winnipeg) is an information technologist for the Manitoba government. He has attended colleges and universities in Africa, Canada and the United States and has earned six degrees in areas such as information systems, economics and public policy and administration. He is also the president and founder of IZ New Consulting, a professor at Leadership Academia University and a visiting professor at Université Panafricaine du Congo and Université Protestante du Congo. Kabashiki has volunteered with various organizations including the International Leadership Association, the Manitoba Service Excellence Awards Leadership Sub-Committee and the Policy Developer's Network Committee.

Sandra Kaufmann (Winnipeg) is a retired office administrator. Her work experience includes working as an office administrator at Cassidy Ramsay Barristers and Solicitors and Sandon Foods and she previously owned and operated A Cut Above Hair Fashions. Kaufmann has served on the SSAB since 2017.

Edna Nabess (Winnipeg) is a community and business leader, proud mother and grandmother. Born and raised in Cormorant Lake, she has travelled extensively throughout northern Manitoba and has built two local businesses, one located in The Pas and the other in Winnipeg, specializing in moccasins, clothing, jewellery and ornaments. Nabess is a member of the Mathias Colomb Cree Nation and a mentor to other women in her community, passing on her traditional skills and knowledge. She is a member of the Creative Leadership Council, the Advanced Education Training and Literacy Aboriginal Advisory Council and a founding member of Manitoba Artist Showcase. Nabess has received numerous awards for her designs at a variety of festivals throughout Manitoba and was the recipient of the 2009 Aboriginal Business Service Network Award, "Honouring Aboriginal Business Leaders".

Amanda Racine (Boissevain) is originally from Winnipeg and studied pharmacy at Winnipeg Technical College. A former pharmacy technician, Racine currently works as a hairdresser. She is also very active in the Boissevain community, where she volunteers with St. Andrews Community Church.

Thomasina Sinclair (The Pas) is a health care aide and an Opaskwayak First Nation band member.