

BALANCED SCORECARDS

The scorecard system will clearly communicate strategic direction and help align public service work to government priorities in four key areas:

- quality of life – improving outcomes for Manitobans;
- working smarter – delivering client-centered services;
- value for money – protecting Manitoba’s bottom line; and
- public service – fostering service excellence.

