

APPROVED 2022-23 TEACHERS' IDEA FUND PROJECTS

- Library revival: Developing a centre for mental health at École Harrison, Brandon School Division - $72,060
- Achieving 'the good life' at Roseau Valley School, Border Land School Division - $97,978
- Cranberry Portage community garden, Frontier School Division - $61,000
- Regulation tools to support mental health at Plum Coulee School, Garden Valley School Division - $59,350
- Physical movement and safe spaces to support student mental health at Pine Ridge Elementary School, Garden Valley School Division - $90,000
- Mental health awareness through drama at Pine Ridge Elementary School, Garden Valley School Division - $56,498
- Proactive mental health programming at Steinbach Regional Secondary School, Hanover School Division - $58,000
- Divisional career development and life exploration program initiatives, Hanover School Division - $54,370
- Inclusive extracurricular activities to build peer connections, Hanover School Division - $70,450
- Forest/nature school to support academic achievement, mental health and social-emotional well-being at Woodlawn School, Hanover School Division - $116,812
- On the land project, Lakeshore School Division - $149,698
- Integration of literacy and mental health, well-being and belonging with student voice and choice at Minnetonka School, Louis Riel School Division - $67,250
- Wellness and movement room at St. George School, Louis Riel School Division - $47,735
- Creating safe spaces to support mental health teaching and learning at Archwood School, Louis Riel School Division - $56,000
- The zone project at Roblin Elementary School, Mountain View School Division - $75,400
- Sage Room – Working toward self-regulation at MacKenzie Middle School, Mountain View School Division - $147,092
- Take care of students and staff, Park West School Division - $139,900
- Improving student well-being by focusing on language and literacy skills at École South Pointe School and École Van Wallegghem School, Pembina Trails School Division - $62,000
- Integrated high school at Institut Collégial Vincent Massey Collegiate, Pembina Trails School Division - $42,000

- Up-regulation space and down-regulation sensory space supports at École R.H.G. Bonnycastle School, Pembina Trails School Division - $58,174
- Promoting healthy living at Linden Meadows School, Pembina Trails School Division - $120,000
- Creating space for Mamàhtawisiwin, reconciliation and mental health at Westdale School, Pembina Trails School Division - $109,000
- Cultural, wellness resource centre at William Morton Collegiate Institute, Pine Creek School Division - $62,000
- Prairie Rose divisional mental health initiative: Sources of Strength, Prairie Rose School Division - $86,050
- No child left inside: Land-based learning to nurture student well-being and community belonging at Donwood School, River East Transcona School Division - $146,934
- Nature-based pedagogy and mental health at Rivers Elementary, Rolling River School Division - $112,000
- Dialectical behaviour therapy skills group for middle years students, Seine River School Division - $60,250
- Promoting climate resiliency and student mental health at H.C. Avery, Seven Oaks School Division - $70,000
- Indigenous youth developing mental wellness through the teachings of Mino pimatisiwin, the Good Life, Seven Oaks School Division - $50,000
- After-school music program, Seven Oaks School Division - $140,000
- Wellness and well-being initiative: Infusing the 5Ts for mental-health education in schools at Jameswood Alternative School, St. James-Assiniboia School Division - $48,000
- Therapeutic learning centre at Benito School, Swan Valley School Division - $50,400
- Creating therapeutic schools, Swan Valley School Division - $150,000
- Culturally inclusive mental-health toolkit at Isaac Brock School, Winnipeg School Division - $79,647
- Fostering power and agency through literacy at John M. King School, Winnipeg School Division - $83,000
- Implementing Wahkohtowin at Elmwood High School, Winnipeg School Division - $68,186
- Supporting the social-emotional needs of students at John M. King School, Winnipeg School Division - $150,000
- Wellness and the arts: A collaborative pilot course at École Secondaire Kelvin High School, Winnipeg School Division - $70,842