

TEACHERS' IDEA FUND 2023-24 APPROVED PROJECTS*31 NEW SINGLE-YEAR PROJECTS

- Connecting and Supporting Indigenous Youth, Newcomers and Allies at St. James Collegiate, St. James-Assiniboia School Division, $85,000;
- Indigenous Student Land Based Experience at St. John School, Winnipeg School Division, $77,000;
- Proactive Approach to Foster Belonging and Decrease Anxiety at Robertson School, Winnipeg School Division, $142,060;
- Health and Healing through Land-based Learning at Ozhaawashkwaa Animikii-Bineshi Aki Onji Kinimaagae, Seven Oaks School Division, $149,147.00;
- Creating Belonging Through the Lens of Artistic Wellbeing and Indigenous Ways of Knowing at Pembina Trails Collegiate, Pembina Trails School Division, $52,350;
- Mino-Bimaadiziwin: Elder Partnerships at Arthur E. Wright School, Seven Oaks School Division, $51,450;
- Nourishing Indigenous Mental Health at Fort Richmond Collegiate, Pembina Trails School Division, $106,600;
- Walking with the Earth – Pimohtwin: Connecting with the Land for Positive Mental Health and Well-Being at Laidlaw School, Pembina Trails School Division, $149,970;
- Indigenous Youth Reclaiming Mino Pimatisiwin: A Journey for Mental Well-Being, Seven Oaks School Division, $118,100;
- Culture and Collaboration: A Culturally Responsive Mental Health Continuum at Isaac Brock School, Winnipeg School Division, $127,950;
- Reimagining School Mental Health and Well-Being: Fostering Success for all Students at General Wolfe School, Winnipeg School Division, $145,000;
- Indigenous Support and Programming Team at Acadia Junior High School, Pembina Trails School Division, $112,245;
- Promoting Wellness through a Community Hub that Supports Belonging, Mindfulness, and Food Security at Lavallee School, Louis Riel School Division, $71,077;
- Creating a Safe Space to Land at École St-Malo School, Red River Valley School Division, $150,000;
- Good Work for the Good Life at Oak Lake Community School, Fort La Bosse School Division, $88,800;

- Wellness Room at Rossburn Collegiate, Park West School Division, $68,581;
- High School Wellness Through Indigenous World View Lens: Supporting Teachers, Seine River School Division, $150,000;
- Mental Health and Social Emotional Early Learning Initiative, Swan Valley School Division, $150,000;
- Anxiety-aware and Trauma-informed Self-directed Learning Hub at Nellie McClung Collegiate, a collaboration between Prairie Spirit School Division, Garden Valley School Division and Western School Division, $109,550;
- Mental Health Initiative: Sources of Strength Phase 2, Prairie Rose School Division, $138,000;
- Mental Health Wraparound – Supporting Students, Staff and Families at Mackenzie Middle School, Mountain View School Division, 148,198;
- Therapeutic Schools, Swan Valley School Division, $150,000;
- Zone-Out to Zone-In: Building Universally Designed Trauma Informed Classrooms at Roblin Elementary School, Mountain View School Division, $90,500;
- Inclusive Extracurricular Activities to Build Peer Connections and Sense of Belonging, Hanover School Division, $108,150;
- Roving Campus at Portage Collegiate Institute, Portage La Prairie School Division, $150,000;
- Wellness and Well-Being: Infusing the 5T's of Mental Health into the Mamàhtawisiwin Framework at Ross L. Gray School, Border Land School Division, $150,000;
- Sensory Space at Kelsey Community School, Kelsey School Division, $68,874;
- Mino Wicihtowin – Helping One Another in a Good Way, Kelsey School Division, $138,000;
- Indigenous Land-Based Education – Divisional Gathering, Frontier School Division, $150,000;
- Reconciliation Exploration Exchange at Helen Betty Osborne Ininiw Education Resource Centre and Elm Creek School, a collaboration between Frontier School Division and Prairie Rose School Division, $89,464; and
- Motivational Speakers for Mental Wellness, Flin Flon School Division, $150,000

19 CONTINUING MULTI-YEAR PROJECTS

- Valley Gardens Community Connections in Valley Gardens Middle School, River East Transcona School Division, $100,200 (year three of a five-year commitment);
- Project LIFE, River East Transcona School Division, $133,000 (year three of a three-year commitment);
- SENSE-ational Schools: Physical Literacy–Enriched Opportunities for Children with Neurodiversity at Lakewood School, St. James-Assiniboia School Division, $23,000 (year three of a five-year commitment);
- Circle of Courage and Cognitive Behaviour Therapy Enhancing Resilience, St. James-Assiniboia School Division, $25,000 (year three of a five-year commitment);
- Tech Hub, Seven Oaks School Division, $50,000 (year three of a three-year commitment);
- Elder Proposal at École Leila North, Seven Oaks School Division, $25,000 (year three of a three-year commitment);
- First Teacher, Seven Oaks School Division, $51,600 (year three of a three-year commitment);
- Transforming Our Teaching through Regie Routman in Residence, Seven Oaks School Division, $98,600 (year three of a three-year commitment);
- Improving Mathematics Outcomes in Kindergarten to Grade 8, Seven Oaks School Division, $30,000 (year three of a three-year commitment);
- Virtual Advanced Placement Program, Prairie Rose School Division, $25,681 (year three of a three-year commitment);
- School Outdoor Revitalization at Elm Creek School, Prairie Rose School Division, $48,300 (year three of a three-year commitment);
- Enhancing Community through Métis Cultural Exploration at St. Laurent School, Prairie Rose School Division, $32,500 (year three of a five-year commitment);
- Transitioning from High School to Post-secondary Job Readiness via NITT at Swan Valley Regional Secondary School, Swan Valley School Division, $150,000 (year three of a five-year commitment);
- Umbay Nagamon: Come and Sing with Us at MacKenzie Middle School, Mountain View School Division, $149,149 (year three of a five-year commitment);
- Valuing the Whole Child: Making Valuable Connections (Teacher, Student, Family, and Community) at Whitmore School, Mountain View School Division, $125,000 (year three of a five-year commitment);

- Project 30: Improving Literacy Outcomes for Students, Park West School Division, $114,283 (year three of a four-year commitment);
- HAWKS – Honouring Anishinaabe Wisdom Kindles Success at Strathclair School, Park West School Division, $115,000 (year three of a three-year commitment);
- Waywayseecappo Off-Campus School Land-Based/Ojibway Language Education, Park West School Division, $13,000 (year three of a three-year commitment); and
- Creating Space for Reconciliation at Rossburn Collegiate, Park West School Division – $46,400 (year three of a five-year commitment)