GARY ALBERT FILMON, Premier; President of the Executive Council; Minister of Federal-Provincial Relations; Minister of French Language Services; MLA for Tuxedo.

Gary Filmon was first sworn in as Manitoba's 19th premier on May 9, 1988.

A registered professional engineer, Mr. Filmon was first elected to the Manitoba legislature as a government member in the River Heights by-election of October 1979. The following month he was appointed legislative assistant to the minister of finance and energy and mines until January 1981 when he was sworn into the provincial cabinet. He became minister of consumer and corporate affairs and environment and assumed responsibility for the Manitoba Housing and Renewal Corporation.

Re-elected in 1981, 1986, 1988 and 1990 as the member of the legislative assembly for Tuxedo, he has been leader of the Manitoba Progressive Conservative Party since December 1983.

A native of Winnipeg, he obtained his early education at four North Winnipeg schools: Margaret Scott, Faraday, St. John's and Sisler. He then attended the University of Manitoba, graduating with a bachelor of science degree (civil engineering) in 1964. Following postgraduate work he won his master's degree in civil engineering in 1967.

He served as a consulting engineer for five years with Underwood McLellan Ltd. and for the next 11 years was president of Success/Angus Commercial College.

For four years, starting in 1975, he was a Winnipeg city councillor, serving as chairman of the committee on works and operations, as member of the executive policy committee and as a member of the city's official delegation to the provincial government. He also served as chairman of the Assiniboine Park-Fort Garry Committee.

Among his community activities, he has served as president of the University of Manitoba Alumni Association, president of the Association of Canadian Career Colleges, member of the Senate of the University of Manitoba, director of the Administrative Management Society, director of the Winnipeg Jets Hockey Club and director of the Red River Exhibition board.

HARRY ENNS, Minister of Natural Resources; Minister responsible for The Manitoba Natural Resources Development Act (except with respect to Channel Area Loggers Ltd. and Moose Lake Loggers Ltd.); MLA for Lakeside

Harry Enns is a rancher from Woodlands, Manitoba, and a long-time member of the Manitoba legislature, representing Lakeside since 1966.

His 24 years of service makes him the dean of the 35th Legislative Assembly and he has been selected to serve the province's Executive Council by four separate premiers -- a Manitoba record and one rarely matched elsewhere in Canada.

He has also filled a wide number of cabinet portfolios over the years, including agriculture, highways and transportation, mines and resources, government services and natural resources.

Prior to the election in April 1988, he was the Progressive Conservative chief critic for energy and mines and for Manitoba Hydro, and deputy critic for consumer and corporate affairs. He also has served as house leader, chief critic for natural resources and the Manitoba Public Insurance Corporation and deputy critic for transportation, for agriculture and for the Manitoba Telephone System.

When he was first elected to the legislature, he was assigned the agriculture portfolio. In addition to agriculture, he was appointed acting minister of highways in 1967. In 1968, he was appointed minister of mines and natural resources; in 1977, minister of highways and transportation as well as minister of public works; in 1979, minister of government services and minister responsible for the Manitoba Public Insurance Corporation, the Manitoba Telephone System and Manitoba Data Services. From January 1981 to the general election of November 1981, he was minister of natural resources.

Before his election to the legislature, he served as a trustee on the Interlake School Board and on the local Agricultural Regional Development Association Board.

He is married to Eleanor.

JAMES ERWIN DOWNEY, Deputy Premier; Minister of Rural Development; Minister of Northern Affairs; Minister responsible for Native Affairs, The Manitoba Natural Resources Development Act (with respect to Channel Area Loggers Ltd. and Moose Lake Loggers Ltd.), A.E. McKenzie Co. Ltd. and The Manitoba Oil and Gas Corporation Act; Minister responsible for and charged with the administration of The Communities Economic Development Fund Act; MLA for Arthur-Virden.

James Downey was born in Melita and has been farming in the area for over 20 years. In 1971 he founded the Melita Auction Mart Ltd., which he operated until September 1977.

First elected to the Manitoba legislature in 1977, he was minister of agriculture and a member of the Treasury Board and provincial land use committee in the government from 1977 to 1981. He also served as Opposition chief critic for agriculture, municipal affairs, A.E. McKenzie Seeds and Native affairs and as deputy critic for Crown investments and natural resources.

In 1988 he was sworn in as minister of northern affairs, minister responsible for Native affairs, minister responsible for the Communities Economic Development Fund Act, Minister responsible for Channel Area Loggers Limited, minister responsible for Moose Lake Loggers Limited, minister responsible for A.E. McKenzie Company Ltd. and minister responsible for Manitoba Oil and Gas Corporation.

In the government restructuring of April 1989, he had responsibility for seniors added to his ministerial duties. Following the general election of September 1990 he was named deputy premier, as well.

He was awarded the President's Medal on completion of a diploma course in agriculture at the University of Manitoba and later graduated from the Western College of Auctioneering in Billings, Montana. A director of the Manitoba Stock Growers Association and the Manitoba Beef Growers Association, he has also been active in community affairs, is a member of the Royal Canadian Legion and a past member of the Melita Toastmasters.

James and Linda Downey have one son, Ryan.

February 1991

DONALD WARDER ORCHARD, Minister of Health, MLA for Pembina

Donald W. Orchard, a Miami district farmer, has represented Pembina constituency in the legislature since 1977. He was named minister of health in May 1988, following the general provincial election.

Prior to the April 1988 general provincial election he was Progressive Conservative critic for health, communications, the Manitoba Telephone System and Manitoba Data Services. He has also served as deputy leader of the party and deputy critic for consumer and corporate affairs.

During the 1977-81 Progressive Conservative government, he served as legislative assistant to the minister of education until he was appointed minister of highways and transportation in 1979. He was also minister responsible for the Manitoba Telephone System and Manitoba Data Services. He was chairman of the Road and Transportation Association of Canada, chairman of the Council of Ministers responsible for Transportation and Highway Safety and chairman of the provincial land use committee. He was active on a number of cabinet sub-committees, from Indian land claims to economic development.

He was born in Miami, Manitoba, and farms in the area. He was educated at the University of Manitoba, graduating with a B.S.A. degree in agriculture economics in 1968. He then served five years in Regina and Edmonton as area sales manager for Simplot Chemicals.

He returned to Miami in 1973 and served six months as a consultant for the International Joint Commission for the Study of the Pembina Dam System. He purchased farmland in the district, and while farming, also instructed farm business management courses. He has been a director of the Miami Agricultural Board and was secretary of the Miami Consumers Co-op Board in 1976-77.

Orchard and his wife, Janie, have three children: Eric, Arlene and Onalee.

ALBERT DRIEDGER, Minister of Highways and Transportation; MLA for Steinbach.

Albert Driedger was first elected to the Manitoba legislature in 1977 as MLA for Emerson, and was re-elected there in 1981 and 1988. In 1990 he was elected in Steinbach.

Following the election in April 1988, he was named minister of highways and transportation and minister of government services.

Between 1977 and 1981, he was chairman of the committee of supply for two years and also served as legislative assistant to the minister of natural resources. After the election in November 1981, he served as critic for the Manitoba Public Insurance Corporation, deputy critic for natural resources and deputy critic for business, development and tourism. He was later appointed chief critic of natural resources and deputy critic of government services.

He resides in Grunthal where he is a real estate broker and beef farmer. Prior to his election in 1977, he was reeve of the Rural Municipality of Hanover for five years. He studied agriculture at the University of Manitoba.

He is past president of the Grunthal Chamber of Commerce, past president of the Grunthal Sports Association and a former minor hockey league coach.

Albert and Mary Driedger have four children and three grandchildren.
